

Meltron – changes in sales organisation

Meltron's marketing and sales director Christian Jonsson, who joined Meltron in June last year, is now leaving the company with immediate effect due to conflicts of interest. His responsibilities are taken over by CEO Ville Sistonen.

As previously agreed Mr Fredrik Johansson will join Meltron on 12 April and be based in Göteborg. His primary responsibility will be to build Meltron's market position in the Nordics and in Europe. Fredrik Johansson has a long career with Tungsram and GE Lighting.

- "We are happy to welcome Fredrik to Meltron, his experience from the lighting industry and of industrial sales is going to be very valuable as we continue to build our market position", says Ville Sistonen. "He will be a strong addition to our marketing and sales team".
